Footnotes | View Glossary Of Terms

JOE THE TAILOR pressed the pace to midway on the turn, took command racing four wide turning for home, drifted out several paths despite right-handed urging in mid-stretch impeding the runner-up and finished willingly to hold that one safe. URBAN RULER stalked the leaders in a clear pocket in striking distance through the turn, rallied six wide at the head of the lane, took up in mid-stretch altering course off the heels of the drifting winner, angled to the inside and was gaining in the final yards. WILLING N ABLED set the pace under pressure to the quarter pole, had no answer when fully engaged by JOE THE TAILOR and weakened down the lane. BRIDGE CLASSIC was in tight shortly away from the gate to be squeezed to the rear of the field and was never a factor. THE STEWARDS POSTED AN INQUIRY AND THE RIDER OF URBAN RULER CLAIMED FOUL FOR INTERFERENCE IN THE STRETCH RUN BY THE WINNER, UPON REVIEW THE STEWARDS DISQUALIFIED THE WINNER AND PLACED HIM SECOND.
