MIDNIGHT BREEZE took command early, was confidently handled to the stretch, responded when set down in the straight, and drew off under a steady drive. WHISPERIN LIZ flew out of the gate but ceded the front to MIDNIGHT BREEZE while settling into a stalking position, was no match for that rival in the stretch but kept on well to save the place, finishing well clear of the next horse. FOR THE HOME FRONT took a hard bump form the inside rival at the start, then was close up in the run down the backstretch, than had to be ridden to keep up through the turn, was unable to go with the top two through the stretch but held clear to take the third prize. CAHILLS REDEMPTION broke in and bumped hard into FOR THE HOME FRONT, chased the leading trio from well back, then was done on the turn and not persevered with when hopelessly behind. HOLIDAY CRUISE could not keep up, chased throughout, while able to beat one rival home.
