Footnotes | View Glossary Of Terms

CLOCKIN IN sprinted clear from the break, held sway through the turn, then opened up in the stretch and widened the margin in the final furlong. MUCAFAAH lost the path after the start, then was coaxed along down the backstretch, made steady forward progress to the turn, saved ground through that turn, continued to improve, and was never getting to the winner but finished clear of the next horse to claim the second prize. WADI AL KOUF was off slow, chased the main pack to the turn, took the inside path through the turn, then finished well to move up to third. OBAN broke well settled mid-pack between horses down the backstretch, struggled to keep up late on the turn, then lacked a significant rally in the stretch. DOCKET got a good break, chased the runaway pacesetter to the stretch, then tired. GAME TIME DECISION was outpaced from the start, dropped to last early, was under a stiff drive from the seven-sixteenths marker, but was unable to improve. BINGO ONE chased three-wide in the middle of the pack down the backstretch, then started to weaken before the turn, and dropped far behind.
