Footnotes | View Glossary Of Terms

MIDNIGHT BOSS raced close up on the inside, bided time while full of run through the turn, got a huge hole to run through at the head of the stretch and surged clear in the late stages. COPPER ECHO pressed the pace two-wide, could not go with the winner late but edged clear of the rest to gain second. DEVIL'S MISCHIEF dueled inside of COPPER ECHO early, put a head in front passing the half-mile pole, battled between foes into the stretch, then weakened while racing on the wrong lead. SOLEVO was outrun near the back, passed tired foes. COPPER STORM got bounced around a bit at the start, was hard to place in the initial stages, moved outside and up closer as the field headed into the turn, was in range of the lead midway through the turn, came four-wide into the stretch, then angled to the inside at the three-sixteenths marker but faltered mid-stretch. FETE stumbled at the start, settled at the back of the field, and lacked a rally.
