THE EXODUS TWIST broke outward, was clear early inside, drew off in the stretch, was under steady urging until gearing down late. THUNDERTAKER was bumped at the start, settled, bid inside at the eighth pole but as no match for the winner. HIGH AS THE SKY saved ground, bid three wide near the three-eighths pole and gained the show late. CHATTERFIELD was off awkwardly and was bumped at the start, stalked the pace in the three path and faded in the stretch. DISAPPEAR was brushed at the start, stalked the pace in the three path and faded on the turn.
