A CHAMPS DREAM bore out at the start, vied early in the three path, dueled outside of a rival around the turn and down the stretch and drew off approaching the sixteenth pole under steady handing. COUNTTHECARATS vied inside, dueled around the turn and down the stretch but couldn't match strides with the winner. PENEI saved ground, shifted to the three path in early stretch and rallied, just missing the place. ALL THE LUCK stalked the pace in the two path, moved to the four path near the quarter pole and faded. ENJOY THE CRACKEN stalked the early pace in the three path before giving way on the turn. BANIDOSO reared at the start, trailed, bid in the four path near the half-mile pole and faded in the stretch. MAZZEO vied between foes before fading on the turn.
