Footnotes | View Glossary Of Terms

MAY DAY READY broke in at the start and was off a step slow, settled off of the early pace while never far back, roused outside of MIWA (GB) nearing the quarter marker, drew to even terms at the furlong marker, shook free into the final sixteenth and pulled away late while in hand. MIWA (GB) broke alertly and took early command, showed the way to the turn, held a clear lead at the half-mile marker then led to upper stretch, met the bid of MAY DAY READY nearing the furlong grounds, couldn't hold off the winner into the final sixteenth and yielded late.
