Footnotes | View Glossary Of Terms

DASHIN' DIVA was forwardly-positioned stalking or pressing the pace from outside, raced mostly three wide, took the lead about the quarter pole, moved clear soon after, held sway. LOTS OF KISSES stalked outside four wide, was within range in upper stretch, proved no match for the winner but held the place. TEMPTING EVE got away well but soon ceded the lead to track inside, moved just off the rail on the turn, kept on evenly in the stretch, missed second. RETHINK settled mid-pack inside, saved ground, sought room nearing the sixteenth pole and altered out, kept on but needed more. ROILING was in tight at the start and relegated to last, lacked early speed shifting in, advanced along the rail leaving the turn, angled out nearing the furlong grounds, was about six wide and continued to gain through late stretch. LUCY MCGEE broke outwardly, pursued from between runners mid-pack two to three wide, ran on evenly. FORBIDDEN FRIEND soon led, set the pace inside on or just off the rail, faltered and faded. QUEEN DANCING (GB) was forced out at the start, settled off the pace mostly three wide on the turn, failed to rally. KITTENS STORMY GAL was in tight inside off the early pace, sought room shifting out, was mid-pack coming into upper stretch, failed to rally. MACLEAN'S LULLABY lacked early speed and was not a factor. ADALENE chased in behind mostly three to five wide, came up empty. BIT OF FROST was outside four to five wide dropping back to last and was never near enough to threaten.
