NORTHERN VOYAGE tracked from the three to two path into the turn, progressed inside of rivals before tipping out to the three path turning for home, rallied in the four path into the final furlong, ranged up outside of the new leader to bid in the final sixteenth and drove past late. DIDN'T IT RAIN pressed two wide, chased the clearing leader into and around the turn, stayed on to rechallenge passing the furlong pole, gained an advantage entering the final sixteenth but got outfinished by an outer bidder late. BIT OF FROST was brushed on both sides soon after the start, trailed two wide and between horses into the turn, advanced between rivals around the bend, rallied in the three path into the final furlong, claimed show at the sixteenth pole and willingly chased the top pair home. PURPLE AND GOLD was sent forward early on, set the pace along the inside, drew clear into the turn, maintained a margin into the lane, but was caught by an outer challenger whlie tiring in the final furlong and weakened. CLOUD NUMBER NINE brushed with an outer foe soon after the start, saved ground well back but to no avail. BELONGTOTHENAVY brushed with an outer foe just after the off, raced off of the pace along the inside, chased in the two path in midstretch and gave way. VOLATILE NITE lacked speed three wide, pursued between rivals into the lane and made little impact. GOLDEN GRAMMY chased in the four path and faded around the turn. REAL NICE SURPRISE chased forwardly in the three path, got floated to the four path turning for home and weakened.
