EMERGING MARKET attended the pace tucked in along the rail, worked his way out through the second turn, split foes and poked his head in front a furlong from home, fought on determinedly to narrowly prevail. STOWAWAY was allowed to settle, moved with the winner through the turn, came four wide and kept on well but was unable to bridge the gap. ADMIRAL DENNIS prompted the pace outside, was collared between horses leaving the second turn and flattened. MEMORY came away in good order, angled in and set the pace along the rail, was headed entering the stretch and gave in.
