Footnotes | View Glossary Of Terms

OAK HILL BOY settled well back and remained off the inside, gathered momentum four wide into the stretch, shifted out wider soon after, closed steadily under a drive, took over outside rivals with about a sixteenth to go then edged clear. TAUREAN lagged back, came four wide for the drive, worked outward to about the seven path leaving the three sixteenths and closed belatedly on the left lead to earn the place. EXAGGERIFIC prompted the pace outside the leader, drew alongside leaving the far turn, held a slim advantage between foes mid turn, shifted out after the leader cleared into the lane, came back on threaten inside the three sixteenths, failed to sustain inside the sixteenth marker and faded. MO'Z STAR SAILOR hopped a bit outward at the break, corrected and edged up inside foes to take over after a furlong, dug in when collared entering the far turn, vied inside a pair of runners leaving the three eighths, inherited a short lead near mid stretch, failed to contain outer foes and weakened through the final sixty yards. TACLOBAN saved ground off the pace, was under asking mid turn but failed to drum up a significant kick. NELLE TUE MANI tracked four then three wide, moved up to bid three deep under a ride mid turn, was hustled clear of foes entering the lane, was pulled up nearing mid stretch then transported off the track via the equine ambulance.
