Footnotes | View Glossary Of Terms

HUSTLIN' MAN behind leader early while along the inside, covered up in some traffic through the turn to lose some position, eased out and advanced entering the stretch, bid between foes when straightened for home, wore down the pacesetter under firm handling. ME PROMESA broke running from the outside, showed the way up the backstretch, given a bit of a breather through the turn under light restraint, responded when challenged by the winner from the outside entering the straight, dueled with that one past the furlong marker and proved stubborn to the end. OLE MISTER bobbled just after the start, raced well back off the pace toward the inside, continued to save some ground into the lane, improved to finish up best of the rest, no real threat to the top two. OUR BODIE forwardly placed while racing off the inside, moved a bit closer into the turn, three wide and between horses into the lane, lacked a closing kick. PATEK within striking distance while racing outside in the run up the backstretch, moved moved closer late in the bend, fanned four wide into the lane, came up empty in the run to the wire as well. BAYOULAND RED fell back after the start and failed to menace.
