NEW DESTINY dueled early for pace from the two path then came four wide in the upper and drifted out while kicking clear to prove best. GOLDEN CITY dueled early for pace three wide then weakened a little coming around the turn and shifted to the two path and finished evenly holding the place award. PLUM WINE broke outwards and bumped a rival then stalked the pace from the five path and came six wide in the upper but weakened. ANN'S STORM settled off pace along the inside and improved in the stretch. LIGHTENING MO settled back in the four path but weakened in the stretch. LITTLE Z was bumped at the start and shied out a little before settling off the pace in the two path and made no bid.
