PUDGE BOY PALACE, with the pace three deep, was nudged clear nearing the five sixteenths, widened the advantage under a firm drive in mid stretch then kept on well to the wire. SEVEN'S ELEVEN drafted back after an alert start, rated in the clear and spied a three pronged pace scrum, circled four wide with an advance into the lane, chase on from there and continued willingly to be second best. B D SAINTS got into a battle between foes leaving the chute, shifted in towards rail after the leader cleared, chased on past mid stretch then gave way grudgingly. STATES UNITED settled back in last and off of the contested pace, gained with a menacing two wide move past the three eighths, loomed in upper stretch, failed to kick on past mid stretch and faded. MORNING THOUGHTS was hard sent to the inside of rivals and gained a slim early advantage, fought on to mid turn, dropped back entering the lane then shifted out through the drive.
