VAYA JEFFE, three wide into the first turn, prompted the pace between foes then to the outside of the leader leaving the far turn, moved alongside past the five sixteenths, duelled from the head of the lane, wrested command a furlong out then slowly edged away under a drive. TASKER moved up between runners to take command into the first turn, dropped in to set the pace, dug in when confronted approaching the stretch, spared to the inside of the winner to deep stretch and gave way grudgingly. PAID VACATION led early then was firmly rated back off the leader around the first turn, regrouped and tracked inside, eased out with pursuit for the final furlong and kept on willingly to earn the show. SHAKIN MY HEAD, three deep attending the pace into the backstretch, was under pressure four wide leaving the three sixteenths and came up empty. WIN STREET settled off the pace and off the inside, angled five wide for the drive but lacked a solid finish. WICKHAM LANE , away awkwardly, steadied briefly soon after, recovered and settled off the pace, lightly steadied outside a troubled foe leaving the far turn, swung out well wide for the final furlong and closed belatedly. SILVER SABER , under a snug hold two wide and to the inside of a rival near the five eighths, shifted in around the final turn but lacked a rally. MY PAL BILL , three to four wide, made a mild move past the five sixteenths and faded. SKULLDUGGERY saved ground, stumbled leaving the far turn, regrouped and continued to saved ground, lacked a kick in upper stretch and faded.
