BOSS MODE vied outside a rival then cruised clear in hand leaving the far turn, shifted in soon after and was nursed along to the head of the lane, responded when put to a solid drive leaving the quarter pole then held firm while kept to task. NAYMAR edged up saving ground nearing the three quarter pole and stalked, was nudged along to stay in range, angled out leaving the far turn then made a quick move between runners, gave hard chase towards the inside in upper stretch, eased back out some and continued gamely to the wire. MY BOY BUD broke outward bumping a rival, corrected and moved up between foes early, was urged along chasing three wide between runners mid turn, continued three wide into the lane then faded late. LITTLE THEODORE broke a step slow, settled off the pace, swung six wide entering the lane but failed to drum up a rally. HOORAW , bumped at the break, stalked outside rivals, lost ground four wide pursuing past the three eighths, lacked a kick entering the stretch and retreated. STORMY BREW moved up to the inside of the winner and threatened after a quarter mile, forced the pace into the turn, failed to keep pace soon into the stretch and faltered.
