Footnotes | View Glossary Of Terms

SHE'S A GEM , away well, prompted a contested pace four wide, bid four deep leaving the far turn, secured command mid turn, spurted clear under confident handling approaching the stretch, drifted in towards the rail in mid stretch and widened under a steady hand ride. LADY CHARLOTTE vied between foes and poked a head in front near the half, sparred inside winner past the five sixteenths, shifted out after that one cleared, stayed on to give willing chase and dug in late to preserve the place. ROYAL SEAMSTRESS , urged along while saving ground, eased out and went around a tired rival mid turn, dropped back in nearing mid stretch and kept on with effort. CAPTURED DARLING stumbled at the break, regrouped and raced off the inside, circled four wide with some run into the stretch then flattened out in the final furlong. ARRIVEDERCCI vied inside foes, failed to keep pace leaving the three eighths, steadied mid turn and came up empty. GOLD TIME VIXEN , ridden along while off the pace, angled five to six wide but failed to muster up a rally. PAISLEY SINGING , three wide with pursuit, moved up between runners to briefly threaten near the three eighths, lacked a punch entering the lane, faltered and was eased late.
