Footnotes | View Glossary Of Terms

WAR HUMOR broke in a bit then made solid contact with CACTUS, regrouped and rated in within range of a contested pace, angled four wide into the lane, moved up to engage rivals leaving the three sixteenths, poked a head in front leaving mid stretch, wandered outward then dug in tenaciously under a drive to deny his inner stable mate. CACTUS broke outward and bumped with the winner, corrected and moved up to stalk the pace, saved ground mid turn, eased out with an advance near mid stretch, navigated between runners and finished gamely. JAVA BUZZ edged up early and stalked the embattled leaders three wide, took closer order into the stretch, gained a slim lead in mid stretch, failed to contain the winner's outside bid then gave way grudgingly. WATCH OUT WORLD , in mid pack and off the inside, angled six wide for the drive, switched over to his left lead with about a sixteenth to go and kept on with interest. DEWY'S BEAST drafted back after an alert start, saved ground mid turn, eased out and worked between runners to gain through the final furlong. LUCA MACHINE , bumped and steadied soon after the break, dropped off the pace and was under rating off the inside, angled well wide in the drive and finished with good energy. HANKSDIVININGROD , sluggish from the gate, dropped off the pace, shifted out in the drive and had belated action. ELVIS HIMSELF came in after the break tightening a foe, corrected and got into an extended duel inside, battled to mid stretch, weakened near the sixteenth pole and coasted late. ROOMMATE MARTIN , four to five wide, chased between runners near mid stretch but came up empty. BENNY HAVENS had his head turned at the start, lagged well back, saved ground into the lane and failed to get involved. SAME DAY AS L J rushed up, dueled outside a rival, stayed on to the three sixteenths then weakened. UNCLE GREY broke slowly, had his rider remove the blinkers in the opening furlong and trailed.
