MCGIRVIN , bumped a couple of times in the initial yards, dropped well off the pace into the turn, angled three wide into the lane, worked further out to advance between foes then kept grinding while on the left lead. PRINCE OF TIDES broke inward, corrected and bumped with an outer foe when rushing up, slipped through along the rail to take over and clear leaving the far turn, set the pace towards the inside, drifted out a bit when confronted into the stretch, stayed on past mid stretch then weakened. EMPEROR MING broke inward then steadied briefly, was hustled inside and failed to menace. REPLICATE bobbled at the break, prompted the pace four wide, was under pressure into the lane and weakened.
