Footnotes | View Glossary Of Terms

LOOK NO MO settled three-wide close up behind the pacesetters, finished well under a drive, wore down the leaders, and drove clear in the final yards. BIG BANG BOOM unhurried early, settled at the back through the first half mile, circled the field three to four wide on the far turn, swung six or seven wide into the stretch, and rallied to take the second prize. FIFTYSHADESOFNAUTI was hustled away from the gate, came out of the first turn as the inside horse in a three-way pace battle, was kept in a tight hold to the far turn, then dueled into the stretch with TRANSOM BAY, shook off that rival mid-stretch to take a short lead, but was overtaken in the final yards. FAIR WEATHER FLYER outrun early, settled near the back two-deep, came into the stretch six-wide still well behind, then found best stride late and rallied down the middle of the track to pick up the minor award. SHANGHAI CUPID settled near the back three-wide, stayed on mildly late. BLAME DA INNOCENT became rank while being held up on the first turn, pulled forward to be in range on the leaders heading into the far turn, waited behind horses through the turn, tipped out to the three-path for the stretch, altered course to the inside mid-stretch, then finished with some interest, but came up short. TRANSOM BAY was prompted early to get forward position, went three-wide on the first run but emerged onto the backstretch run to vie between foes for the lead down the backstretch, went ahead with FIFTYSHADESOFNAUTI midway through the far turn, but could not put that one away and weakened in the final furlong. ROWDY AMERICAN raced mid-pack early on, dropped back through the pack on the last turn, and lacked a rally. CHIEF BROWN raced close up on the inside through the early stages, then tied in the stretch. SPIDERS REVENGE got caught four-wide on the first turn, moved up to join the leaders at the six-furlong pole, vied three-wide from that point, came under ride approaching the three-furlong pole, but did not respond and faltered in the stretch.
