BOLT SUPREMACY bobbled slight at the start, recovered to race with the early pace while between horses, narrowly showed the way into the turn in the two path, garnered a larger advantage late in the bend, continued to slowly expand that lead upper stretch, not threatened the final furlong while being kept to task. SPUNOUTOFMYMIND vied up front while four wide up the backstretch, continued in a forward position turn, chased the winner into the stretch, could do little with that one in the run to the wire, held sway for the second spot. FLY RED BIRD FLY close up early along the rail and inside the winner, fell back off the first flight before a quarter, moved out, came four wide for the drive, displayed some modest interest while remaining out in the strip to finish up best of the rest. SIR PEEL back off the early pace outside, continued four wide through the turn, improved position slightly through the lane in picking off a tiring, no real threat. CLASSICALLY held a slight advantage just after the start, continued to contest the issue while between foes into the turn, began to weaken late in the turn and continued to falter through the lane.
