MAKING ME CRAZY broke with the pack, but backed off near the five-eighths pole, came back on midway through the turn, took command at the furlong pole, and drew clear. JOE PHILLIPS vied for the early lead three-wide while being confidently ridden, took a slight lead at the top of the stretch, had no answer for the late charge of the winner past the furlong marker, but kept on to save the place. DAVID'S GEM started sharply and was inside of a three-way early pace duel, battled on gamely through the stretch but weakened in the final furlong. ORB OF THE BORO was devoid of early speed and last early, finished with some late interest, and gained some ground in the final furlong. STAR SHOPPING contested the early pace from between horses, dropped out at the three-eighths pole, and chased the rest of the way from the rear.
