CARSON N SPENCE was allowed to settle early, came off the rail exiting the first turn, moved up in range of the leaders before the far turn, responded when asked to go on passing the half-mile pole, easily too command of the race at the five-sixteenths marker, and drew off under steady handling. DERBY INCLUDED tracked a few lengths off the pace, lacked a clear path approaching the three-furlong pole, then angled out to the three-path midway through the turn, and finished with some late interest to gain the place. ATLAS FALLS was the back marker through the early stages, started to run on going into the far turn, came out four-wide into the stretch, and finished well enough to gain the third prize. MR LOOCH tracked DRILL'S BOY to the half, took over the lead at that point, then gave way approaching the quarter pole and had little to offer in the stretch. MUCHO PRIMO raced three-wide and lacked a finish. DRILL'S BOY went to the front on the first turn with minimal effort, led the way for a half-mile, then gave way readily.
