Footnotes | View Glossary Of Terms

MIDNIGHT WARSHIP got away well, pulled to the front near the five-furlong pole with the rider keeping a tight hold, cruised through the turn with a clear advantage, then responded when cued in upper stretch, drew clear, then was taken in-hand near the finish. GAPPER traveled in the five-path for the whole of the race, fanned out widest of all for the stretch run, and finished well to gain the place. C V DYNAMIC dropped back to last after a level start, chased under a drive and finished with some late interest to improve to third. QUIET AMIGO broke on top but was quickly overtaken, settled with the tracking group in the three-path, bid five-wide into the stretch but flattened out and did not menace. SPIRIT OF AKRON pressed the pace to the outside of MIDNIGHT WARSHIP, then weakened in the stretch. RED HEAD KID was under a ride from the start, moved up from last to be in range of the leaders on the turn, came under pressure approaching the quarter pole, and tired in the stretch. This race had a timing discrepancy or malfunction and was re-timed using video technology to arrive at the most accurate time.
