HOLIDAY COAL rubbed between runners leaving the gate, settled off the pace three wide through the first turn, began ranging up nearing the half-mile pole and took charge approaching the three-eighths, coaxed along through the turn until being called upon at the three-sixteenths and forged ahead in the final furlong proving much the best. BIONIC SAINT rubbed with outer foe at the start, gave chase two wide through the first turn, was in no hurry to keep up with the leader as he pulled away after the first turn, slowly closed in up the backstretch to overtake the initial pace setter along with HOLIDAY COAL inside the seven-sixteenths but was outbid for command, lost some ground rounding the far turn and entered the stretch five wide, was no match for the eventual winner but was able to grind his way into the second in the final jumps. ANICETTA settled off the pace along the inside, slowly advanced up the backstretch to be close up entering the far turn, shifted out two wide to pass a retreating runner in the turn, was no match for the winner but fought with BIONIC SAINT down the lane for the minor awards for a game third. JAC'S COCOABELLA trailed four wide for most, passed retreating foe in the stretch. ALMOST DRILLED rubbed inner foe at the start and drew ahead before the first turn, settled along the inside to dictate the terms for the run up the backstretch, relinquished command inside the seven-sixteenths and retreated before being eased across.
