Footnotes | View Glossary Of Terms

BRICKLIN broke well, dueled up front closest to but not on the inside, continued in the two path backstretch, edged clear in the far turn, steadily drew out, kept to task. MISINFORMATION in the second flight behind the winner in the two path, dropped to the rail early in the far turn, chased the winner into the lane, proved no match for that one while finished well clear of the others. TREADSTONE lacked speed, tipped out four wide late in the final bend was along for the show, no threat to the top two. OPUS UNO pressed the winner early then dueled onto the backstretch, continued to battle into the far turn then began to slowly weaken. MEELO TIME went one paced throughout while racing off the inside. LARGE RISK within striking distance while racing outside in the four path first turn, continued to stalk outside, four wide again in the second bend, came three wide for the drive, lacked a closing kick. CHAD ALLAN broke back, raced five wide through both turns, never a threat. JETS RIO leaned into the outside of gate to be off a step slow, raced back and inside, failed to muster a rally. SPEED IT UP bobbled just after the start, fell back to trail after the start and was always outrun.
