Footnotes | View Glossary Of Terms

BERMUDA TRIANGLE hopped slightly at the start, quickly moved up to shadow the dueling leaders, loomed three wide through the turn to take charge at the top of the stretch, drew away from the rest, much the best. CRAIGH NA DUN vied for early command between runners, claimed a narrow lead approaching the turn until being overtaken by BERMUDA TRIANGLE at the quarter, chased on down the stretch. NILAMBAR vied for early command three wide, surrendered the lead to CRAIGH NA DUN entering the turn while maintaining pressure, flattened out in the stretch. THE PIRANHA vied for early command along the inside, backed off at the three eighths, shadowed the pace through the turn, weakened in the stretch. TAP THE DEVIL was outran.
