XMAS IN CAIRO applied pressure to the early pace setter, contested the lead in the upper stretch, dug in with strong encouragement for a narrow victory. OMIKAMI trailed for most, made a bold move rounding the far turn to gain along the inside before shifting out four wide, fought hard down the lane but just missed. MY LADY JBELLA opted to chase the early pace setter, launched an inside bid in the upper stretch, led briefly at the sixteenth before getting nailed at the wire. G'S FIREBALL dictated the terms of the race until finding herself between bids at the top of the stretch and ultimately gave way. IXCHEL tracked the pace from the four path, finished evenly. WHATTA WORLD raced off the pace, lacked a bid. SPARKLING RUBY stalked pace three wide until retreating through the far turn.
