J D FACTOR seized the early lead, dictated a slow pace then turned back all challenges in the late stages. KISSTHEMOON was taken in hand after the break but pulled up close to the pacesetter three-wide, dropped back to last late on the backstretch, but was never far back, moved up through the far turn to bid for the lead in upper stretch, closed in late but could not reel in the winner. KARLWITHANARL settled at the back through the first turn but was never more than three lengths behind, was without a clear path to make a move through the far turn, but had the rail available for the stretch run but was outkicked and unable to threaten. TUDOX OPPORTUNITY tracked closest to the pace in the two path, then was outfinished in the stretch run.

SONG TO REMEMBER dueled with CASSIE'S VAULT to the stretch, then drew clear. TAPWRIT WARRIOR raced three to five wide into the turn and stayed on well to gain the second prize. SHE'S A BOMBSHELL chased the pace in the second flight, moved up to second position in the stretch, flattened out a bit and was outfinished for the place. AVRIL raced two wide in the second pairing, then lacked a finish while tiring on the wrong lead. CASSIE'S VAULT dueled to the outside of SONG TO REMEMBER, then gave way in upper stretch.

MARGIN OF AIR settled mid-pack after the break, gradually closed in on the leaders heading into the turn while being confidently handled, quickly took command leaving the three-furlong pole, opened up in the stretch and maintained a comfortable margin to the wire while under mild handling. HEARD ON THESTREET had to be coaxed along early to remain in contact with the field, advanced to be in range of the leaders on the turn, came out three-wide for the drive, finished well but could not get to the winner. MAGICNTHEMOONLIGHT broke best to take the early lead, shook free late on the turn, but weakened in mid-stretch. A VOTRE SANTE hustled away but was not quick enough to join the early pace battle, started to lose ground on the turn and was under a stiff drive just to maintain position. BEJUCO was outrun through the early stages, then kept on well enough to pass one tired rival. BOLTAGE pressed the pace two to three wide, then weakened in the stretch.

SAPPHIRE PRINCE moved up after a tardy start, reached striking range of the leader by the turn, came under a drive approaching the quarter pole, took over before the furlong marker and drew clear late. SPINNING MUSICIAN settled near the rear, then stayed on with a grinding finish to get up for the place. BRUDER was sent hard from the start and made the early lead, maintained a clear advantage through the turn, but gave way readily to the eventual winner in upper stretch and weakened, losing second late. INTER MIAMI tracked close up along the rail to the stretch but lacked a finish. LADDIE DANCE dropped to last after the start and was never involved.

THE FEISTY ONE was under a ride from the start but not fast enough to contest the pace, kept to task, dropped down to the inside coming off the turn, rallied up the rail to get up just in time. TEMPTING LADY settled well off the pace, started to run on midway through the turn, swung out four wide for the stretch run, produced a rally to close in on the leader but just missed. SONADORA GIRL was pushed from the break to get forward position, took over the lead after passing the half-mile pole, fended off a bid from DAKOTA SPRINGS, opened a lead in upper stretch but got tired, kept trying but yielded in the last jumps. DAKOTA SPRINGS stalked the early pace, went after SONADORA GIRL on the turn, but could not make any headway against that one and flattened out in the final furlong. WARRIOR'S MISS was far back early, saved ground throughout then showed some late interest but only passed the tiring foe in the stretch. SHUDABEENACOWGIRL broke best to take the early lead, was joined by SONADORA GIRL before the half-mile pole, dropped off the pace midway through the turn, then tired in the stretch.

MAGIC SPIN was a bit slow to get going, moved up between horses approaching the three-furlong pole to press the leader, split horses in upper stretch and responded to strong handling to collar the leader and edge clear in the final yards. THE JUDGE AND JURY jumped out to the early lead, dug in under threat on the turn, maintained the lead through the stretch, then yielded grudgingly in the last jumps. SUPER TIZ tracked just off the pace three-wide, launched a bid under a drive from the three-furlong pole, loomed at the top of the stretch, but flattened a bit in the late stages and was not doing enough to pose a threat. BOSS HOLIDAY got away well and stalked the pace from the inside, came under a ride midway through the turn, but lacked the needed response. FEDERAL EXCHANGE tracked four-wide not far off the pace, came under a ride late on the turn and was unable to mount a late bid. CAPPETTA took back out of traffic near the five-furlong pole, then lacked a rally.

DON'S LAST RIDE was last at the break, steadily advanced through the turn, followed DRAFT RIOTS past the field on the turn, then produced a strong rally to collar that rival inside the sixteenth marker and win clear. DRAFT RIOTS was bothered by CHUCKY OUR LAW at the start and shuffled back, made a sweeping move three-wide on the turn to take over the lead past the quarter pole, was well clear of the field in upper stretch but could not hold off the winner. GALLANT CREEK vied for the early lead, took the lead past the three-furlong pole but was immediately challenged by DON'S LAST RIDE, then went evenly through the stretch to save the minor award. ABITOFSANDY lacked any early foot and dropped back to last, far behind the rest, kept to the inside, and stayed on to pass a couple of tired foes while never a serious threat. CHUCKY OUR LAW broke out at the start into the path of the outer rival, jhustled up into the early pace mix, then weakened near the quarter pole and had little to offer in the stretch. SOAR ABOVE pressed the pace three-wide, weakened before the stretch, and was not a factor in the late stages.
