PAYNTED WARRIOR broke well and took a short lead while attempting to slow the early pace, quickened when challenged by NEON SIGN near the three-furlong pole, kept that rival at bay while under steady handling and maintained a comfortable margin to the finish. BACKSIDE BUZZ dropped back after the start and was under some coaxing to maintain contact with the field moved up in range of the dueling leaders in the turn, then stayed on, despite racign ont eh wron glead to move up into the second spot. NEON SIGN took up a stalking position early, then went to press the issue approaching the three-furlong pole, was never able to get to that rival and weakened a bit late to lose the place. BALLAD OF WARRIOR raced in cover in the middle of the pack, then finished evenly. BYK struggled to keep up after going a quarter mile, then ws only able to pass a tiring rival in the late stages. THE BOY'S WARRIOR was a little slow into stride, then moved up along the rail to race in the middle of the pack, was in contention to the stretch, then tired.
