Footnotes | View Glossary Of Terms

SPEAKER'S LOBBY tracked the leaders into the far turn along the rail, was brushed entering the turn by tiring rival, rallied in upper stretch, was lugging in behind the pacesetters midway down the lane, rider drug him off heels to four wide leaving the eighth pole to engage the charging runner-up and outgamed that one to the wire. HOUSE FULL broke at the rear of the field, was niggled on to keep the pack in sight on the first turn, steadied briefly when GLEAMING drifted out entering the backstretch, steadily closed the gap down the backstretch to be in striking distance midway on the far turn, rallied from five wide coming home to take a short lead at the sixteenth pole and was outkicked by the winner in a good effort. GUN POLICY stalked the pacesetter to the final turn, rallied on the bend to pull even turning for home, took a brief lead in the three path at the eighth pole and was outfinished late in the drive. T' RAY raced on a clear lead while setting a slow pace, responded when challenged turning for home and couldn't last, weakening in the final sixteenth. GLEAMING was never a threat. JUDY CHOP prompted the pace for a half mile, brushed the winner when lugging in nearing the far turn when he began to tire and flattered to be well beaten from there.
