GREATEST JOY stalked the pace through the turn while well in hand, responded when called upon turning for home, engaged the leader just inside the eighth pole and pulled clear late in a professional debut. CASTLE DARK broke alertly to open a clear lead shortly away from the gate, continued to be clear through solid fractions to upper stretch and weakened in the final sixteenth while holding the place in a good effort. SINFUL MISCHIEF rated off the pace saving ground, cut the corner turning for home and showed good late interest up the fence. BOLDINA tracked the leaders to be well positioned turning for home from five wide and lacked a closing bid in the lane. WORRYABOUTYOURSELF trailed early and showed some interest coming home with a mild rally. SINKING COIN shuffled a bit along the fence early to trail, closed the gap on the turn and flattened out failing to sustain the bid. TIZ'S CUPCAKE prompted the pace down the backside, rallied to threaten on the turn and tired coming home to fade to the rear.
