WE CALLED SOL stalked the pace into the turn, rallied at the quarter pole three wide to engage the leader in upper stretch, took the lead at the eighth pole and held the runner-up safe in deep stretch. J R JONE Z tracked the leaders from three wide down the backstretch, angled to the inside turning for home, rallied into traffic, was abruptly taken up to alter course inside the eighth pole and resumed his bid when clear to be gaining at the wire. ON TAP set the pace under early mild pressure, kicked away down the backside to still be clear midway around the turn, and weakened in the final furlong when challenged. RANSOM MONEY failed to menace. MORNING MARCH was not a threat.
