SNOVEMBER unhurried early to be near the rear of the field, remained patiently reserved off the leaders to midway on the turn, circled nine wide turning for home and wore down his rivals in the lane to be going away late. KING REIGERT was well placed along the fence through the first turn, raced up the inside to take a short lead down the backside, remained pressured through the turn, responded gamely in a five way battle down the lane and was outkicked by the winner while holding the place position. DOMINATOR C. stalked the dueling pacesetters down the backside, angled in to save ground on the far turn in a clear poscket, tipped out for the stretch drive looming up in mid-stretch and was unable to get passed. GRAND MORNING pressed the pace into the first turn, was carried wide on the bend by the pacesetter, angled in off that one's heels to move to press the new leader, dueled with that one to mid-stretch and was outkicked in the final sixteenth. LIBRARY raced mid-pack down the backside, lost position around the final turn and re-bid showing some late interest in the lane. MAGNUS EFFECT took the lead into the first turn, raced six wide on the lead carrying rival out through the turn, settled off the pace to prompt down the backside while racing even wider in the eight path, angled in saving a bit of ground on the far turn still racing six wide to mount a challenge again for the lead in mid-stretch and weakened inside the final furlong. NOBLE HERO was not a factor. ON SECRET SERVICE tracked the leaders from mid-pack to midway on the far turn, lacked a response when called upon and faded to the rear in the lane.
