SWEET NOLA prompted the pace to the far turn from three wide, took command while still in hand turning for home and responded well down the lane to hold the runner-up safe. RIGHT NOW stalked the pace from three wide to midway on the turn, followed the winner's move nearing the quarter pole, angled to the clear at the top of the lane and rallied well to be gaining late. SHE'S FIRE set a very well rated pace going through slow fractions for the level, dug-in gamely when challenged turning for home and finished willingly while no match for the winner. ALCOHOL unhurried early to trail, commenced a grinding bid to upper stretch and kept-on with good interest. MY JANNET was not a threat. RUSTY MY BROTHER reared at the start hitting the top of the gate, the rider stepped off while still in the stalls, never participated and walked off. THE STEWARDS POSTED AN INQUIRY INTO THE START AND DETERMINED RUSTY MY BROTHER RECEIVED A FAIR CHANCE AT THE BREAK.
