Footnotes | View Glossary Of Terms

NUTS AND BOLTS set a well rated, well measured pace to the far turn, repelled the bid of the runner-up at the quarter pole and drew off in lane to be in hand late with ears pricked. RISK AND REGRET missed the break giving the field nearly a half dozen lengths, closed the gap on the first turn, continued a steady advance to challenge the pacesetter nearing the quarter pole, was turned away by the winner and ran-on through the lane as second best. STORM BAY prompted the pace for a half mile, gave way on the turn and was not persevered with, galloping home in the lane when hopelessly beaten.
