TIZ HAPPY raced in the back through early stages, swing wide into the stretch, shifted closer to the inside and got up late. BRASA sat off the top flight entering the turn, advanced to engage rivals four deep at the quarter pole, drifted in, brushed into CONWAY and tightened things up for inside runners, ran on with response, briefly led the way then got denied late. BIG MAN STAN vied two wide between rivals into the turn, continued to battle turning for home, got carried in a path when BRASA drifted and tightened things up at the head of the lane, ran on along the inside and yielded late. SPICY NICE raced off the embattled flight entering the turn, drifted wide entering the head of the lane, shifted in under right handed pressure and improved position. CONWAY dueled three wide for the lead, got brushed inward and steadied when outside running BRASA drifted in a path at the head of the lane, lost all momentum and gave way. SIR WALLY vied inside of rivals in opening stages, continued to battle around the turn, got in tight along the rail and steadied when BRASA drifted in at the head of the lane, lost all momentum and gave way. STEWARDS POSTED INQUIRY AND RIDER OF CONWAY CLAIMED FOUL AGAINST BRASA FOR INTERFERENCE UPPER IN UPPER STRETCH, AFTER REVIEW STEWARDS DISQUALIFIED BRASA FROM SECOND AND PLACED HIM LAST FOR DRIFTING IN AND IMPEDING FOES
