Footnotes | View Glossary Of Terms

SKALKAHO prompted the early pace, vied briefly then took over the lead with three furlongs left to run, hustled along three wide into the upper stretch, took on the challenge from inside running BAXTER with a furlong left to run, got headed for the lead, dug back in gamely, raced noses apart in final stages and got a nose up on the wire. BAXTER tracked the pace in early stages, was ridden along two wide into the upper stretch then shifted to the inside, challenged SKALKAHO for the lead, put a head in front, dueled gamely from the inside, raced noses apart approaching the wire and got nipped in final stride. LA FEE'S SECRET tracked the early pace, loomed three wide near the quarter pole, hustled along three wide into the upper stretch, weakened off the top pair but kept on for a share. FIVE CHARLIE raced in the back, swung wide into the stretch and improved position without threatening. MEEKER sat off the early pace, chased three to four wide around the turn then shifted in two wide and failed to move on. I AM LOWKEY led the way in early stages, vied briefly with the winner then failed to match, ran on around the turn then tired in the drive.
