Footnotes | View Glossary Of Terms

BEDROCK was always close up, raced in the two or three path, bid for the lead at the quarter pole, and wore down WESTON in the stretch to prevail. WESTON made the early pace, dug in under challenge from BEDROCK on the last turn but gave way in deep stretch. THUNDER BALL raced wide throughout, then finished up well to gain third. TAVERNELLE settled near the back through the early stages, came out 3-wide for the stretch run, and moved up. WORKDAY pressed the early pace, then weakened in the stretch. BUZZED BY A TIGER lagged at the back early on, kept on late to improve a couple of positions in the stretch. RAAJIN RIBBON saved ground and lacked a rally. MONARCA DE ORO showed little.
