Footnotes | View Glossary Of Terms

DOUBLE PERFECTION stalked the early pace battle, slipped through an opening along the rail at the quarter pole, assumed command, then drew clear through the stretch. MR MEMPHIS was well placed early, lost some ground and position approaching the quarter pole, stayed inside, then stayed on to reclaim the place. TOO TALL TO CALL got a good forward position early, led the way to the far turn while racing about two paths off the rail, yielded the front near the quarter pole, and was outkicked in the late stages while able to save third. TIZ CURLY JOE tracked off the pace through the early running, stayed out in the three-path late, then got carried out very wide on the last turn by RAAJIN RIBBON and was only mildly able to make up any ground late. CASILLALATER saved ground throughout but lacked a late bid. RAAJIN RIBBON pressed the pace three-wide, went out about five or six into the stretch, and was unable to rally.
