TENACIOUS CANDY broke well and jumped out to an early lead with LITTLEQUEENOFMEAN stalking just over a length back, maintained the margin into the stretch, and was fully extended to hold off a final bid by that rival at the wire. LITTLEQUEENOFMEAN stalked the pace in the two-path, was always close up, then made a final try in the closing yards and just missed. MONARCA DE ORO settled early, came out very wide turning on to the backstretch, continued wide through the far turn, then outfinished the rest to gain the third prize while never a serious threat to the top two. IDA LORRAINE went wide on the first turn, then was unable to threaten in the late stages. STEEL NERVES saved ground racing in mid-pack and lacked a closing bid. HOPING SHE WILL bolted into the first turn, trailed down the backstretch, went wrong and pulled up after passing the quarter pole, and was transported from the track in the equine ambulance.
