Footnotes | View Glossary Of Terms

THATSALRIGHTMAMA away quickly, led two wide into the first turn, relinquished the lead around the bend, pressed the leader on the backstretch then took over into the far turn, showed the way in the two path then near the inside into the lane, fought with BLAME EVE in upper stretch, then drew away under right handed urging and steady handling. BLAME EVE chased four deep through the first turn, bid four, three, then two wide around the second bend, got turned away by the winner with a furlong remaining but was clearly second best. MAKENARITA stalked in the two path then found the rail on the first turn, shifted back to the two path chasing on the second bend, tipped out a bit for the drive but flattened in the furlong grounds. Greta's Ghost trailed along the inside into the first turn, moved off the rail briefly before returning to the fence, passed a tired rival on the far turn while continuing to save ground and picked off another weakening rival in the lane. VRONAWAY showed early speed from inside, took over around the clubhouse turn, pressured by the winner on the backstretch, lost command into the far turn, could not kick on with that rival approaching the quarter pole and tired down the lane. SASAFRAN raced up close three deep, stalked from off the rail to the far turn, tired around that bend, eased in the lane and walked off.
