Footnotes | View Glossary Of Terms

GHOSTLY CHANCE raced in the middle of the field early, steadied from between horses nearing the half mile pole then dropped back, rallied three-wide into the stretch and was up with a rush in the final strides. GEORGE WHO saved the pace racing in hand, responded when asked but was unable to resist the winner late. OUR VALENTINO was off a step slow then settled in the back of the field, moved up four-wide nearing the quarter pole and finished in a mild rally. PEEKAY was bumped at the start by JUANA RUMBLE then saved ground tracking the pace but lacked a rally. WRECKING STORM was prominently placed racing two-wide and weakened. JUANA RUMBLE broke in sharply to bump PEEKAY then rushed up three-wide on the turn to be forwardly placed to the stretch and tired.
