Footnotes | View Glossary Of Terms

TESSELLATE bobbled then bumped with a rival at the start, was guided out very wide early stalking from off the inside, moved to bid past the quarter pole floating wide coming out of the turn but with the lead, drove clear then held safe. LADY VALOR was bumped after the start, settled well back, trailed into the turn, fanned seven to eight wide into upper stretch, was bumped at that juncture, proved was no match but kept on to get the place. RIDGIE was carried out early, settled off the pace, came into upper stretch six to seven deep, bumped with a rival in upper stretch racing between foes, drifted in through late stretch, was outfinished for second. LOVE LIKE LUCY bumped with the outer foe then bumped the inside rival at the start, chased the leader from off the rail, moved to reach contention between foes coming past the quarter pole, had no extra for the drive. LIGHTSCAPE settled off the pace inside but off the fence, came into upper stretch five to six deep, was in tight near the sixteenth pole. GERRARDS CROSS sped clear and shifted in to set the pace inside, gave way.
