Footnotes | View Glossary Of Terms

ALWAYS A RUNNER hopped up leaving the gate, raced in the two path around the first turn, settled in the middle of the pack for the run up the backstretch, began a bid from the two path coming around the far turn and took command in the stretch, geared down at the wire. EVANGALINA raced in the four path around the first turn, stalked the leader on the outside up the backstretch, navigated the far turn from the two path and chased on to the finish. ENDLESS GLORY raced in the two path early, led the way up the backstretch, saved ground around the turn and gave way in the lane. ALL ABOUT YOU raced in the two path around the first turn, tracked the leader on the inside up the backstretch, swung out to the four path coming around the far bend and faded in the stretch. MISS WHINNIE raced in the four path around the first bend, chased the leader between horses up the backstretch, continued around the second turn in the two path and tired from there. GOLDY GATE was way from the gate slowly, saved ground off the pace through the opening half mile, navigated the far turn from the two path and made no bid.
