MIA'S ANGEL was bumped at the start and pressed the pace from the three path, came four wide through the turn while being between rivals and angled in at the bottom of the turn and made a bid but was just short. UTOPIA ROSE raced two wide through the first while settled back, then came five wide through the second turn and swung out wide into the upper but needed more. SING SCAT was squeezed at the break and quickly set a pressured pace from the two path, came out into the upper to be four wide but weakened in the stretch. CROSSATI tracked the pace two wide and was placed between rivals through to the backstretch, came three wide through the turn and shifted in and the corner off the turn but lacked kick. JASSAI settled mid-pack three wide through the first turn and came out to be five wide through the second, made a bid but faded deep in the stretch. CHACARERA stumbled at the break and settled off the pace on the inside, came out nearing the five sixteenths marker and was six wide through the turn but was no factor.
