IKIGAI quickly took command along the inside, came under pressure from UNDALAY through the turn, pulled away from that one in the upper stretch and floated out to the three path, kept on task to maintain advantage. BANG A RANG chased the pace setter, made an inside bid rounding the turn but was held off by the winner. MEGAN'S HONOR ran between foes, gained position through the turn, stayed close up down the stretch. SANTOS TO WILSON bobbed at the start, steadily advanced four wide and entered the stretch in a prominent position, had no closing bid. UNDALAY saved ground to press the pace from the three path, flattened out in the stretch. COALMINER'S KITTEN trailed shortly after the start, passed tired foe in the stretch. HUNTERS GHOST was reluctant to load the gate, raced off the pace, never threatened.
