PATRIARCHAL allowed to settle while saving ground into the far turn, shifted out to the three path nearing the quarter pole for racing room, lost a narrow opening as outside rivals advanced, waited, shifted back to the rail at the top of the stretch, slipped through, rallied under mild right handed urging and was along in time. SAQEEL allowed to settle, rallied five wide in upper stretch to gain a narrow lead before the furlong marker then couldn't hold off the winner and just held on for second by the narrowest of margins. ICE BLAST unhurried early, loomed boldly four wide in upper stretch then was outfinished. BREEZY MONEY set a pressured pace near the inside to upper stretch then weakened. SECRET BAGENT MAN pressed the pace two wide to the top of the stretch then gave way.
