GRITS N GRAVY with the second flight two wide, closed willingly four wide under left handed urging and got up in the final strides. COUPLE BEERS DEEP broke in front, set all the pace, dug in when challenged by the winner and just missed hanging on. BIG DADDY HANK allowed to settle, found his best stride late two wide. KETTLE COALMINE had good early speed along the inside, lacked room entering the turn bulled his way through bumping LUCY'S FIRST SONG near the five sixteenths pole, drew closer in upper stretch then came up empty. LUCY'S FIRST SONG chased the pace in the two path into the turn, was bumped by KETTLE COALMINE midway on the turn then weakened. GUESS IM JUST GOOD threw his head missing the break then was no threat. BOLD WINDSOR was no factor. REX SPIRED was outrun.
