Footnotes | View Glossary Of Terms

MR MEMPHIS was in a good position stalked the leader, bid three wide on the second turn then finished willingly and took over late to edge clear. WESTERN SIERRA set all the pace, responded to urging, stayed in front to the middle of the stretch but was tiring in the final furlong, could not hold but saved second. TIZ CURLY JOE got outsprinted, saved ground on both turns and closed ground belatedly. CONNECTER was settled for half a mile then circled four wide to the stretch and was also gaining in the late stages.
